Dear Mr. Turner:

Mr. Wiser is on vacation and I have your letter of September 23. We very much appreciate your bringing to our attention the fine service afforded you by our Regional Manager Director of Western Europe, Mr. Erastus Corning and Ms. Mary Glass of his staff, as well as the efforts of Ms. Nicole Ober and Ruben Medina on board Flight 107.

It's always a pleasure to learn when our people have performed so well. Your thoughtfulness in responding to them personally was, I'm sure, sincerely appreciated. I do want them to know that their efforts have been further recognized, therefore, by copy of this letter to them, I would like to add my own personal thanks to yours.

Again, please accept my sincere thanks for writing.

Sincerely,

Dan A. Colussy

Dear Mr. Wiser,

Last Saturday I had the pleasure of flying from London to Washington, D.C., on Pan Am flight No. 107. The treatment I received from ground personnel at Heathrow Airport and flight personnel en route was so exceptional that I would like to commend them to you.

At Heathrow Airport, Mr. Erastus Corning and Ms. Mary Glass were both extremely helpful in getting myself and members of my staff on the flight and in arranging the accommodations.

During the flight itself, Mr. Ruben Medina and Ms. Nicole Ober were particularly helpful in providing not only routine services, but in giving me as much privacy as possible under the circumstances in which to work.

I have written each of them separately but wanted you to know personally that they were superb. Their extra effort made the trip genuinely pleasurable.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER
